EXPRESS YOURSELF

physical storytelling with Mbene & Marleen

„Die Mühle“ Bad Kreuznach

October 9 – 13th, 2017 | 10 am – 3 pm daily

Mbene Mbunga Mwambene | actor, performer & director

Marleen Wolter | performer & cultural scholar

If you expect a classical theatre workshop where you are given a script and learn your lines, you'll be highly disappointed. You don't have to learn long monologues by heart, learn how to step or wear tights nor be a tree – unless that's exactly what you want.

All you have to do – is EXPRESS YOURSELF

We will check out different ways of expressing ourselves, of telling stories with our bodies. What stories and what props we need to tell them with is what we will find out during the workshop. At the end we will be able to present our own small plays.

The workshop is open for young people (age 15 to 24). No acting experience or skills are needed: Everyone is welcome. The workshop will be in German, English & body language. If you require a translation into another language please ask.
